What To Bring (And What Not To Bring) For Living In The Residence Halls

What To Bring

All residence hall rooms are furnished with a bed, desk, dresser, lamp, and chair, and wastepaper and recycling baskets. We suggest coordinating with your new roommate(s) for certain items, including televisions, carpets, and printers.

☐ Clothes for all climate types, including rain gear
☐ Bathrobe or something to wear to the community bathroom
(Note: Quartu residents’ bathrooms are in their suites)
☐ Warm coat or parka
☐ Waterproof shoes or boots
☐ Coat hangers
☐ Towel racks
☐ Mirror (only if assigned a room in Emerson or Thoreau)
☐ Bedding: sheets, pillows and pillowcases, mattress pad, comforter and/or bedspread, blankets
☐ Check out the Residence Hall Linens and College Bedding Program for some cool bedding that fit UC Davis residence hall beds
☐ Washcloths and bath towels
☐ Hand towels (not all residence halls have paper towels in the restrooms)
☐ Telephone (most students use their cell phones)
☐ Alarm clock (preferably with a backup in case of power outages)
☐ TV, radio, video and music players, video games, movies and music, other electronic entertainment; Energy Star rated is preferred
☐ A few eating utensils (coffee mugs, silverware, plates, glasses)
☐ Items to decorate your room, such as pictures, posters and plants
(Note: Students may NOT nail or screw items into walls; poster putty, thumb tacks and push pins are okay)
☐ Computer
☒ Bring the UC Davis recommended computer configuration for students; Energy Star rated is preferred
